To Whom It May Concern:

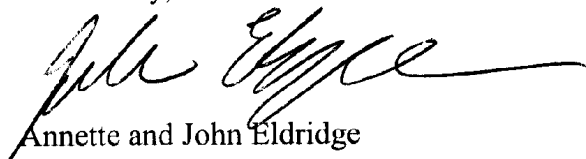

It is our pleasure to recommend Mr. Jacques Weber, who was our son's Spanish instructor at the Awty International School in Houston. Awty is the premier language school in Houston and is very selective about language teachers. Mr. Weber is an alumnus of the Awty International School.

Mr. Weber taught our son, Graham, during the academic year 2006-2007 and we consider him one of those teachers who makes a difference in the students' lives. Graham was inspired by Mr. Weber's knowledge of so many languages and his ability to make the subject matter interesting and enjoyable. He exhibited a firm command of the classroom combined with a fun, relaxed atmosphere. The students were challenged to raise their level of Spanish and open to the possibility of exploring other languages, as well. After the year with Mr. Weber, our son advanced to a higher than expected level of Spanish, decided to do an intensive study abroad Spanish summer program in Buenos Aires, and has chosen to continue serious study of Spanish as a third language at the International Baccalaureate (IB) higher level. We credit Mr. Weber with giving Graham a strong background, inspiration and lots of encouragement in this regard.

Mr. Weber's friendly, yet disciplined demeanor, his command of the subject matter, his very special ability to connect with the students, and his strong work ethic make him an outstanding educator who we recommend highly. His leadership skills combined with the aforementioned talents would also make him an excellent candidate for administrative positions or employment in other areas, outside the field of education.

Annette and John Eldridge
